THE KING'S CHURCH, WISBECH

2. Throughout this policy where reference is made to “staff” this term is used to mean “all employees or volunteers who are carrying out activity with the express permission of the Overseers of The King’s Church on behalf of The King’s Church.”
3. Throughout this policy where reference is made to “Leader” this term means someone appointed by the Overseers into a leadership position within The King’s Church.

Commitment

The Overseers and trustees of The King’s Church are committed to ensuring that The King’s Church:

- Provides a safe environment for vulnerable persons.
- Identifies vulnerable persons who are suffering.
- Takes appropriate action to see that such vulnerable people are kept safe from harm.

In pursuit of these aims, the Overseers and Trustees will approve and annually review policies and procedures with the aim of:

- Raising awareness of issues relating to the welfare of vulnerable people and the promotion of a safe environment for them.
- providing procedures for staff and members of the congregation to report concerns
- Establishing procedures for reporting and dealing with allegations of abuse against members of staff and the congregation of the kings church
- The safe recruitment of staff and volunteers

THE KING'S CHURCH, WISBECH

1. Each year The King's Church will nominate a "Leader" as Lead person with special responsibility for safeguarding vulnerable people issues for the year. He/she will undertake appropriate training.
2. Staff and volunteers working with vulnerable people will receive training adequate to familiarise them with child protection issues and responsibilities and the organisation's procedures and policies, with refresher training at least every 3 years.
3. The Overseers and Trustees will receive from the Lead person with special responsibility for safeguarding vulnerable people an annual report which reviews how the duties have been discharged.
